

PS 261 Spring Auction Bash

Wednesday, March 23rd, 7 – 10pm

Invisible Dog – 51 Bergen Street

Donations and volunteers needed

PS261auction@gmail.com

It's true that the PS261 Spring Auction Bash will feature great music, wine and hors d'oeuvres. But, the real excitement – the thrill of the contest, the sweet smell of victory - are the AUCTIONS! It's fun to bid, fun to win and best of all, fun to give — all auction proceeds support our kids through PS261's PTA.

For those of you new to the process, here's how it works:

Everyone in the PS261 community is asked to donate, or procure donations to be auctioned off the night of the Spring Auction Bash, Wednesday, March 23rd. Donations are tax deductible. See reverse side for suggested auction items and donation form.

Bids and purchases are encouraged, but not required for attendance to the Bash.

There will be TWO AUCTIONS and the LEGENDARY TEACHER RAFFLE:

The "Silent Auction" begins on-line March 7th at biddingforgood.com/ps261 and will continue the night of the bash. At the end of the auction, the highest listed bidder wins the item! (Tip: it is wise to check your bids several times during the evening to make sure you haven't been out-bid!)

The "Teacher Raffle" will feature your chance to win a date with the teacher of your choice. Raffle tickets will be on sale throughout the evening.

The "Live Auction" the highlight of the evening with plenty of exciting items and surprises offered by live auctioneer and PS 261 parent Ed Herbstman. Each person will receive a bidding paddle to use for the live auction.

Tickets will go on sale in March.
